

Company Portfolio

TACCT Global Food & Beverages

We offer a cost-effective solution which allows your brand to grow in new markets, without the need for expensive overheads such as on-the-ground sales personnel or a local office.

TACCT GLOBAL

FOOD & BEVERAGES

The export experts

We are an extension of your sales team, growing your brand in over 30 countries worldwide.

WE ARE ONE TEAM

The founding partners

TONY COLLEY

Co-Founder

Tony has been based in the Middle East for 17 years. He set up a gourmet product and fresh food import/export business in 2012 and by 2015 he employed 140 people. He traded across the wider Gulf region specializing in retail and food service. Whilst on the Board of a large international procurement, storage and distribution company, dealing with the UN, he also provided a one-stop-shop procurement, storage, and distribution business to some of the larger HORECA and retail groups in the region.

ANDREW COTTERILL

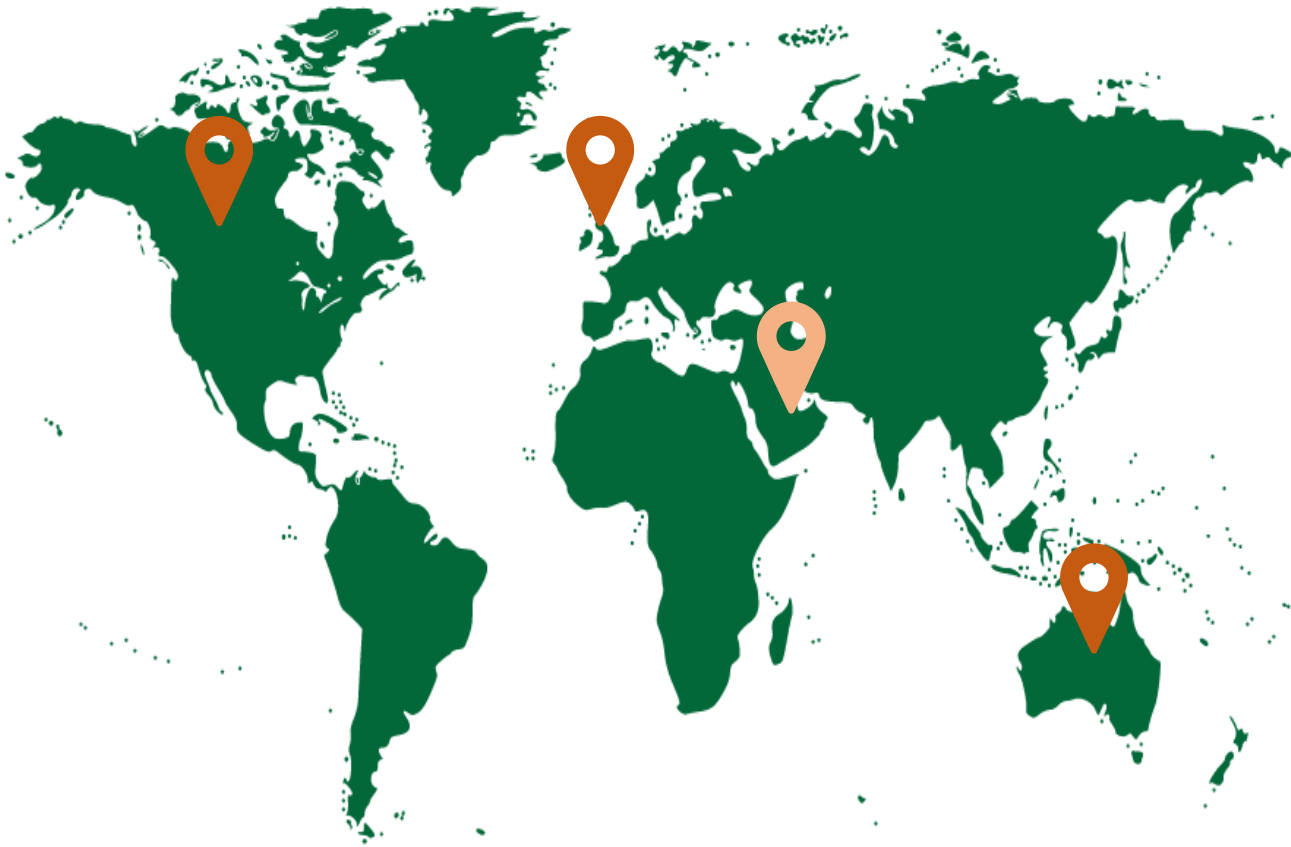

Co-Founder

Andrew is a young entrepreneur that comes from a farming background in the UK and worked on export development for one of the world's largest fresh produce companies. This experience took him to the Middle Eastern, Asian and North American markets where Andrew gained his experience in retail and distribution. Andrew moved to Dubai in 2019 to setup TACCT Global - the UAE's leading international business development organisation.

UNIQUELY GLOBAL

Worldwide business development

Headquartered in Dubai, we drive our core business through three satellite offices in the UK, Australia and Canada.

- ✓ Communication
- ✓ Great client & customer service
- ✓ Love what we do everyday

WHAT WE DO

We act as an extension of our client's sales team

Product registration

We take care of new product import registrations, and provide labelling translations that may be required.

End-to-end logistics

Local and global export models to ensure the delivery of your products both B2B clients and B2C e-commerce customers.

Business Development

Customer identification, product research and introducing your products to the key customers within a certain market.

Account Management

We act as an extension to your sales team, providing dedicated account management, inclusive of market reporting.

Credit Control

Our export model ensures it invoices all customers directly, receiving monies to pay our clients on-time.

Social Media & PR

We support and promote the brands we work with via our social media, PR and marketing channels - and through our website.

WHAT WE DO

The details

- Product collected ex-works from your factory and shipping arranged to the customer
- Not a distributor! We are an extension of your sales team. We only ask you for orders when we receive an order from a customer.
- Organisation of all registration and document translations
- Dedicated account manager for your brand
- Transparent 'value chain pricing' for both 'direct to retailer' and 'distributor' models in each country
- Help with GP expectation of retailers
- Market pricing analysis & competitor or pricing support
- One monthly fee that covers as many or as few countries as you like
- Always communicative....always transparent!
